The Houston Telegraph, of the ist, reports the arrest, by General Gregory, of M. Elmore, lately a Colonel in the rebel army, on a charge of using dogs to catch a freedman and falsely imprisoning him. Colonel Elmore's plea is, that the dogs were used to track an unknown thief, who proved to be a negro. A writ of habeas corpus was served on General Gregory, who respected it, though denying its jurisdiction, and asked an extension to January 15th, to receive instructions from Washington. Elmore'swas released on heavy ball.

they did not receive the last payment of interest, and their names may have been entered to secure their influence without calling upon them for subscriptions. Personal sketches are given of some of the rebel bond holders whose names appear on the official rebel lists as entitled to interest at the last payment; in or about the month of November, 1864.
